

'BOOK OF 12'

REVISED SCRIPT ~ 07.04.2025.

(Rob: Please note that you are the 'Star Whisperer' in most places here, so please use the same great voice you used before...)

Sc. 01: The OPENING TITLES:

STAR WHISPERER:

Have you noticed the meanderings of the stars, as they trace their eternal journey throughout the heavens?

Infinite in their number. Timeless in their wisdom.

Know that they mark the footfalls of each and every person on this Earth.

Silent in their movement. Loud in their meaning.

Is this not magic of a higher order!

Sc. 02: LIVE ACTION/ TONY ON CAMERA:

(No dialogue to read here.)

Sc. 03: The STAR WHISPERER:

STAR WHISPERER:

How many more days, weeks, months, years, lifetimes must I live?

How many more tears, smiles, sorrows, joys, pains must I feel?

How many more children, parents, brothers, sisters, cousins must I be?

How many times must I be black, white, straight, gay, male or female to learn?

It seems that our soul is on a journey of many lifetimes.

It seems that, if we are here, we still need to learn further lessons in this earthly school of life.

(Pause – then wearily...)

Oh, pray tell me - how much longer must I wait!

Sc. 04: The LEARNER:

(Finger pointing to the 'GEMINI' pages in the book.)

STAR WHISPERER:

Those born with an insatiably curious Gemini spirit must learn how to communicate well. Their wide range of interests may tend to make them a Jack-of-all-Trades, but master of none. But, Reason, Logic, Facts & Figures should be food for thought for them, often making them clever and witty in a bright and breezy way. Some however, must learn to add receptivity to their skillset. The biggest problem they may ALL have however - is that the right hand may never quite know what the left hand is doing!

Sc. 05: The SUN GOD:

(Read this section as if the Star Whisperer is reading a bedtime story to a young child – taking on a different voice for both 'Gemini' and the 'Sun God' as he reads them.)

STAR WHISPERER:

Each month, the great Sun God would meet with one of the 12 spirits of the Zodiac, to answer any questions they had. On this occasion, he met with the 'Gemini' spirit...

GEMINI:

(More youthful voice. Read slightly faster than before.)

Please tell me how I might calm my mind. My thoughts seem so varied and scattered, that calmness of thought seems impossible for me to achieve.

STAR WHISPERER:

The Sun God looked kindly down on the Gemini spirit...

SUN GOD:

(A deeper and more resonant/commanding voice – think ‘Brian Blessed’.)

Thoughts and words are your power. Do not waste them on a needless clutter of ideas, false utterances, or anything that goes against your sense of reason and observation.

Dismiss all that is not worthy of your strength of mind, or dignity, in learning. You are given your power of thought and communication, for a purpose. So, use it wisely.

STAR WHISPERER:

And so, the Gemini spirit departed to think over these things for yet another year. Mindful of the wisdom he had received from the great Sun God.
